

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

January 15, 2003 LB 98, 111, 232, 265, 279, 299

the last item I have this morning are a series of adds: Senator Mossey (sic) to add his name to LB 111; Senator Combs to LB 98; Senator Janssen, LB 265; Senator Burling, LB 111; Senator Kruse, LB 232; Senator Thompson, LB 279; Senator Thompson, LB 299. (Senator Thompson added her name to LB 111.)

Mr. President, I might announce as a reminder the Reference Committee will meet upon adjournment; Reference Committee will meet upon adjournment in Room 2102. That's all that I have. (Legislative Journal pages 176-180.)

PRESIDENT HEINEMAN: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. The Chair recognizes the Speaker.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Mr. Lieutenant Governor. Just very briefly, members, we will plan to convene tomorrow at 10:00 a.m. I had previously announced that we would most likely convene at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, but since that a number of members have pointed out, and I think it's a valid point, that if Friday all we're going to be doing is more bill introduction, which is what I think we will do, that perhaps we just as well start at 9:00 on Friday so that you can do what business you need to get done and then you have more time the rest of the day or for the weekend to take care of other business. So we will convene at 9:00 on Friday, but still at 10:00 tomorrow. So with that, Mr. President, I would move that we adjourn until tomorrow, January 16, at 10:00 a.m.

PRESIDENT HEINEMAN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The question is, shall the Legislature adjourn? All those in favor say aye. All those opposed nay. The Legislature is adjourned.
